THE EFFECTS OF PRINT MEDIA ON YOUTH AND SOCIETY Print press is still a strong method for details and connections. It is one of the "indispensable" tools of community that help every individual to connect and match each other.

It is usually used as something for getting details, advertising, marketing strategies, enjoyment, appearance and critique, art and abilities, and other types of human connections. But aside from the benefits, it can still be a significant factor of incorrect and deceiving details and data. We might not notice it, but a lot of our actions and understanding suffer from the pictures we see create media. However, we all have down to filtration the details we get from it.

Print media is a way of posting any kind of news in publishing established. These days print media is very important for all. Daily, every week and per month paper is considered as print media. Most significance in the paper press is that they can calculate and bring the real facts which appear to many individuals across the country.

Here web also performs part but create press is the more efficient source for us. Print media main participation is that it keeps individuals updated by providing the latest information about various subjects such as state policies, financial aspects, activities, Farming, Woodlands, Fisherman, inventory exchange and weather update etc. As a part of print press, Bangla paper ensures above all topics for that type those who are serious need information about inventory exchange, business economic condition, activities, etc. Bangla paper not only provides different information, they also ventilate several community problems and their solution in the community columns. The positive effect of print media: Flashy publications are always popular among customers and are often read by them for a particular time frame in a month. The per month publications are the best way to bring attention to any ads.

Print press is an easy method to distribute attention or promote to any particular regional area. Like, the regional paper is the best way to distribute news about the regional event of the place. Some types of the paper press have huge and reliable supporters. This is definitely a great increase to draw in an audience. The print press allows you to choose your own space for marketing, thus, you can handle your financial budget and costs while planning for the marketing. The negative effect of print media: If you are individual's international viewers, then this is not the method you should go for. Instead, the World Wide Web has a much broader reach than creating press in this.

Placing marketing on the print press needs a lot of planning and time. In this case, you are experienced with versatility problem, particularly when you work in limited work deadlines. In fact, there are many restrictions when it comes to focusing on your viewers as the particular paper may not be available to the listeners all plenty of your energy. On the other hand, a person can get the online connection from anywhere and everywhere.

Besides, most of plenty of your energy, your marketing might wander away among all other ads and editorials. Plus, the life expectancy of paper and publications is very short as people have a propensity to toss them or keep them aside after one day of reading
