

English 4b unit 3

ASSIGN
BUSTER

What was not an invention during the Victorian age? Nuclear power
 What percentage of the world was owned by Queen Victoria at the time? 25%
 Who was the novelist that wrote about the plight of the poor in a Victorian society? Charles Dickens
 Naturalism was greatly influenced by the work of Charles Darwin
 What describes people's attitudes during the Victorian Era in general? People were hopeful about the future but doubtful about new ideas
 Lord Tennyson Alfred Poet laureate of England Elizabeth Barrett Browning married another famous poet Gerald Manley Hopkins a Jesuit priest
 Lewis Carroll well known for children's literature In "Crossing the Bar" the imagery creates a hopeful mood
 Which is the best summary of "Crossing the Bar" The speaker compares death to crossing a bar at sea and he is hopeful he will meet God
 In the poem "Ulysses" How does Ulysses feel about his life at home? He feels that his life is not exciting or fulfilling
 Based on the poem we know that Ulysses is an older man
 What is the meaning of the metaphor in lines 18-23 of Ulysses? His life is not fully used yet
 What Victorian values are exhibited by Ulysses? Interest in progress and optimism about the future
 What can you infer about the speaker's past in Sonnet 43? Her past was unhappy
 Pied Beauty describes nature in both "Pied Beauty" and "Spring and Fall" the speaker believes in God and the spiritual nature of man
 In "Spring and Fall" Margaret is most worried about her own mortality Victorians felt that they could bend nature to their own purposes. Hopkins's poems show that man is part of nature, not master over it
 What is the best summary of "Jabberwocky"? A boy slays the Jabberwock and returns home a hero
 How does the atmosphere of Jabberwocky change? Fearful but becomes joyous and heroic
 Which element is not created by nonce words in Jabberwocky? extended metaphor
 All these works about love agree that love affects life and the world Which of these works says that love is not as important as others sometimes make it seem? Love is not all: It is not meat or drink Which work has the least realistic tones sonnet 43` is restrained by love. is set free by love millay: Browning In the essay, one argument states that love is a cultural delusion. What fact from the essay “ What Is Love?” best refutes this argument? Romantic love has remained constant for centuries How would Victorian writers respond to the scientific idea that love is biologically determined? Victorians agree because they value scientific progress Which does not describe the life of Charlotte Bronte She was married at a young age While at Gateshead Jane is treated like a servant What describes Mrs. Reed from Jane Eyre She believes she’s kind because she has taken Jane in How does Jane feel about her surroundings? She is intimidated and miserable Charles Dickens intended his novel to cause social reform In Oliver Twist, the man in the white waistcoat does not understand why Oliver is crying. What does this reveal about him? He is insensitive Which of the following is a theme of both these excerpts from Oliver Twist and Jane Eyre? Cruelty can be disguised as kindness Robert Browning Happily married another poet Matthew Arnold proponent of arts and sciences in education A. E. Houseman professor that tutored his siblings Thomas Hardy wrote about themes of love within marriage Who is the speaker in “ My last duchess” a duke how does the speaker feel about the duchess she is too friendly with other men What happened to the duchess she is either murdered or sent away In “ To an Athlete Dying Young,” when is the subject of the poem carried “ shoulder-high”? When he won a race and when he died Which element of lyric poetry is not seen in “ To an Athlete Dying Young”? the poem applies all of these elements In “ Ah, Are You Digging on My Grave?”, how is the dog's response ironic? The dog is not digging in order to mourn for the speaker How does "The Darkling Thrush" differ from earlier poems of the Victorian era such as "Crossing the Bar"? The tone in "the darkling thrush" is pessimistic