=)5. Nearing Valentine's day, can all you love experts your two cents of advice ? Multiverse by mrjezus proposes a provactive question along with providing a desktop gem. Great colors and enough contrast to keep the brightness threshold well within its limits. I love this! (Selected by $matteo)

Olya hasn't been around very long, but her presence exceeds even the most experienced deviants. Her skills as a photographer are only surpassed by her love for the community. We, as staff, are extremely thankful for all that she has brought in such a short time. Who would you most like to see interviewed in the next issue of deviantMAG?
