Answer: Taal Volcano is recognized as the smallest active volcano in the world.

The volcano can be found in the interior part of Taal Lake, and 70 kilometers south of Metro Manila. It is distinctive because of the fact that the volcano itself forms a landmass that has a lake inside its crater, and known as the " Crater Lake". The Crater Lake's water has a diluted form of sulfuric acid with extreme absorption of aluminum, boron, magnesium and sodium in salt structure. The volcano can be best viewed in Tagaytay City because of its high altitude. The lakeshore towns of San Nicholas, Agoncillo and Talisay are places in Batangas you can have a closer view, and actually take you to the top of the crater.

Taal Lake is the third largest lake in the Philippines. A waterway called Pansipit River connects the lake thru Balayan Bay and is considered to be very rich in natural resources and different kinds of marine species that thrives in the river. A delicacy in the town of Taal, one would surely love and yearn for is Tapang Taal. What is the tourist attraction are situated near Legaspi City? Marvel at Mt. Mayon and Zipline on Lignon Hill Lignon Hill is that hill that obstructs the perfect view of Mt. Mayon when you get off your plane at the Legaspi Airport. A visit to Lignon Hill is often part of Legaspi City Tour package. But for those who are DIYers, there are two ways to get to the view deck on top of Lignon Hill. After visiting the Japanese Tunnel, you can either decide to hoof it, a good 20min walk uphill or take the habal-habal waiting at the foothill.

As of last March 2011, the quoted price for habal-habal rental is P200/RT. Each habal-habal can accommodate 2 persons. There is actually a shorter way up, this will save you a lot of time and it's a cooler way to get to the view deck. BUT it's a little riskier and trickier. :) As you walk up the hill you will see a set of wooden stairs (looks rickety) on the right side of the road. You can take this up and you will find a well trodden path leading through a little. 27. What are the gateway to region V? which airline service these -
