

Grinch: psychology

Science

ASSIGN
BUSTER

In a tiny snowflake was a village name Whoville; home for the loving warm-hearted Who's. The most important time of the year was Christmas when everyone gave gifts to their loved ones. Everyone loved Christmas, no matter how small or how big, the only person who hated Christmas was the Grinch. The Grinch lived on the top of the mountain, isolating himself from all the Who's his only companion was his dog Max. The Grinch was green, smelly, really hairy, with clammy cold hands with a heart 2 sizes smaller. Nobody ever mentioned the Grinch.

All the Who's in Whoville were terrified of the Grinch, have they ever met him? No, but they did hear stories. He became an outcast to their society and culture. No one really cared to know why he hated Christmas or why shouldn't he spend it with all of them except a little girl named Cindy Lou. The Grinch's nurture experience caused him to hate Christmas. His experience as a young child brought much anger to his heart, when he was little the Whos judge him for being green and having a beer at eight years of age. Ever since the Grinch hated Christmas it tormented him hearing the sing and dance of the Whos he was in his last control to do whatever it took for them to hate Christmas too. The Grinch's behavior was due to his bad nurture he had a plan to still Christmas.

The Grinch's nature was good he was a good person of heart. When he met Cindy Lou she was about to fall in the machine and the Grinch saved her showed he actually cared but because of Mind and Body he saw he was green and different social psychology influenced himself to be mean. Cindy Lou had touched his heart leading him out of his character for who he really was. She wasn't scared of him and had invited him to the "Whoville Christmas". After stealing Christmas the Whos were still happy he notice to them it wasn't just about gifts it was more then that. When these incident happen his true nurture came out he began to cry that day his heart got bigger . He had let all his anger out.

The main reason why he acted the way he did was because he couldn't let it go. His behavior had change due to nature and nurture. The Grinch dint want Christmas to be ruin because of him. He then nurture it as becoming a hero and saying sorry to all the Whos. All in all the Grinch became welcome to the community of the Whos.