ADMISSION ESSAY

This paper represents an admission essay with sound argumentation of the desire to enter the university.

Entering this university has always been a dream of mine. It is well-known that higher education is very prestigious and it provides a lot of opportunities. Since childhood I have been dreaming of studying at this very faculty. Moreover, the references about the University is very good in the Internet. It is not only the level of teaching, but also the interior design, up-to-date equipment and friendly environment that attracted me. One more reason why I want to become a member of the university is that it pays much attention to sports. All my life I have been interested in different kinds of sports. Being with the university team I will have the chance to participate in scaled competitions. Sport is really important in our life and the fact that being a sportsman is approved encourages me greatly.

I should say that nowadays a person has a great choice: to go to college, to enter the university, or just to finish school. It's great that it is up to us to decide what we want to achieve in life and how many efforts we are ready to pay to reach your goal. My goal is to become a skilled professional in my sphere, and moreover to get satisfaction from my job. I perceive pretty well that studying at the university demands a lot of efforts but the result will pay. The applicants with higher education on the labor market are of great demand while those who don't have it still have to seek job. Higher education contributes greatly to the development of the intelligent mind and world outlook. Being at the university will teach me to take responsibility for my deeds. Despite this are just marks, it disciplines greatly.

Well, there are a lot of advantages of being a student at the university but the main thing is to have the desire to study. This is the main condition every applicant should possess, otherwise there is no sense to apply, because the study will not bring desirable result and will turn into time wasting and. In my case it is my willingness and desire that urges me on entering the university. This is my dream that will come true if I begin my study. I believe that I have made the right choice and I am ready to prove it on practice. I must say, that grades play an important role for me, since the progress in studying is the first indicator for an employer. To complete the full description of my personality, I have to admit that I have prominent leadership qualities that will come in handy during my studying.
