

What are the roles of the president?

ASSIGN BUSTER

What are the roles and duties of the president? Define chief administrator. If want similar unique?? paper to go to essaylab.com/order-essay-online

- Chief Executive – executive power to enforce and lead the nation
- Commander in Chief – directing military, controls military arsenal like tanks. and 3rdly always has the “ football” (brief case containing codes to launch the nuclear missiles of the US at some nation.)
- Chief Legislature – * sets public policy* Through Union, initiates suggests, requests, insists, and demands legislation. Campaignes and lobbies for certian bills to be passed. Prop #s
- Chief Administrator – Representative of the Nation essay writer service. Runs and directs the 2-7 million government officials with a budget of $2. 5 trillion a year. Annually meets with the VP, secretaries of Defence, state and security. and Joint Chief of Staff.
- Chief of Citizens – 5th role; Represent (the interests) of all ppl. “ the representitative of all the people”
- Chief of the Party – Party leader: Awknoledged leader of the party that controls the excecutive branch.
- Chief Diplomat – The main architect of US foreign policy and the nation’s chief spokesman to the rest of the world.
- Formal Qualifications – 1. Natural born citizen, 2. 35 years old +3. 14years of residency in the US

More roles and duties

- responds to military emergencies – Commander-in-Chief
- submits an annual economic report to – Congress Economic Planner
- vetoes legislation – Chief Legislator

- negotiates treaties – Chief Diplomat
- sees that laws are carried out – Chief Executive
- grants reprieves, pardons, and amnesty – Chief Executive
- decides whether the United States will recognize other governments – Chief Diplomat
- presents a legislative program to Congress – Chief Legislator
- appoints federal judges – Chief Executive
- commissions all military officers – Commander-in-Chief
- supports candidate of the party – Party Leader
- prepares the federal budget – Chief Administrator
- works for congressional support – Chief Legislator
- issues executive orders – Chief Administrator
- makes executive agreements with other countries – Chief Diplomat
- directs the nations foreign policy – Chief Diplomat
- removes federal officials – Chief Administrator
- promotes high employment, production, and purchasing power – Economic Planner
- may use the military at home as needed – Protector of the People
- is responsible for key military decisions – Commander-in-Chief
- throws out the first pitch of a baseball game – Head of State

Read about