Vietnam has a high-temperature Although the weather in Vietnam is extremely variable, it's possible to distinguish two main seasons: a dry season from November to May, and rainy season from June to October. Under influence of monsoon, and further, because of the complicated topography, the climate in Vietnam always changes in one year, between the years, or between the areas from North to South and from low to high). I would like to talk more about 2 big cities in VN: In Hanoi, there are four distinct seasons: Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter. But it is possible to divide the climate here into two main seasons: the rainy season from May to September (it's hot, heavy rain), and the dry season from October to April (it's cold, little rainfall) Hanoi autumn with blue sky, cool breeze. The last day of collection se chilly and quick integration into winter and now it is very wonderful to smell milk flower flavor on Hanoi autumn In ho chi Minh city, the climate is divided into two seasons, with the rainy season lasting from May to November.

The average annual temperature is 27. 5oC and without winter. . I love living in Hanoi because of suitable weather. Your best friend Although I have a lot of close friends that I love, admittedly, my best friend is probably Ha who studied with me at high school. She is the same age as me, 20 years old. And now she is a third-year student at the Vietnam Commerce of University. We are close friends during 3 study years and still now, the first time seeing, she attracted me by long straight hair, a bit fat, smiles always on her face, especially, good at English ... e not only share our emotions, thought about daily life, love, study experience ... but also help whenever one of us has troubles. She is Catholic, so I come to her home to welcome Christmas every year. It is interesting! I love listening to her voice, she sings very beautifully... she likes coffee, countrymusicand snacks I buy. We have the samepersonalitybut different preferences in things. I am very thankful for having her as my buddy. Even though now we don't hang out and talk every day, I believed we both have a strongfriendshipbetween us and hopefully this friendship will last forever.
