

The meaning of life quotes

ASSIGN
BUSTER

As you all know we all are here in this planet for a while only and our life or being born as a human is a gift irrespective of which race, creed and place you belong to. I believe that being born as a human one has to go through a mother of all possibilities of creation criterion, so I strongly believe that there is one unimaginable intelligent mind behind this creation. We are here to understand his purpose and his views. So let's make this world better like a heaven or at least we can put our best effort to do so in our small span of life, so as our future generation can see what we have once conceived and believed in.

The Meaning Of Life

If you try to find the meaning of life into the process of evolution, you will see that everything is in fact the fruit of evolution-not necessarily Darwinian evolution process. Evolution can be in our thinking, in our social life, in our economical life, in religious life and many more. Though we do not have any hard evidence that if the physical evolution is going on slowly or it has just stopped forever, but one thing is sure that mentally we are evolving everyday when we experience new ideas in our daily life. Perhaps evolution is the only process that we depend on for our survival; we simply cannot survive without going through some kind of evolution.

We all love history. if you look back to our ancestor's history you will easily notice that they used to be afraid of natural phenomena and calamities. They used to consider Mother Nature as our creator, and thought that god lives somewhere up on the sky. Many of us, still, when think about god, look at the sky, thinking that god is somewhere up in space. Perhaps, the majority of the people think God knows everything, believe that surely He can answer what is in his mind and what he only knows the true meaning of life. Actually, we need to find and make our own meaning of life, exactly the way we find peace living in a safe place, with trusted people. Life means go on, it never stops unless your life end. We humans are just walking the walk of life, where someone try to explore their life in their own way, while the others follow the path of great leaders or religious path to find meaning in life. Whatever is the meaning of life is, one thing is sure that we have human values and we all like to live peaceful life, regardless of our genetically identity.

The Meaning of Life: Growth and Learning

Still, I am looking for a true convincing meaning of life, perhaps our effort of finding the real meaning is the key of our living, which truly has no limit, no ending, no horizon. Sometimes, I find trying to find the purpose of life is as just as meaningless of beating the bush-so, better keep learning and enjoy the the full with lots of confidence, honor and honesty as long as possible. In the journey of life we never forget the true virtue we inherit from our ancestors-those teachings are invaluable and help us always to take our step beyond our present status as human. We, all know death is running behind us and gradually we all are falling behind the trap of time. Let's live a peaceful life from every aspect of our point of view. Thank you all:)
