

Robert gilpin: "the nature of political economy"

ASSIGN BUSTER

The main issue is "the conflict of our era is between ethnocentric nationalism and geocentric technology" Two people he references in the beginning of the paper are Kari Levitt and George Ball. Kari Levitt is a Canadian nationalist. George Ball is a former United States under-secretary of state. International Society we are told is increasingly rent between its economic and its political organization. International Society on one hand, powerful economic and technological forces are creating a highly interdependent world economy, thus diminishing the traditional significance of national boundaries. On the other hand, International Society, the nation-state continues to command men's loyalties and to be the basic unit of political decision-making. For Liberalism, Nature of Economic Relations: Harmonious between countries in economic relations. It will benefit everyone to have good economic relations. For Liberalism, Nature of the Actor: the public and business. For Liberalism, Goal of Economic Activity: Maximization of Global welfare. For Liberalism, Relationships between economics and politics: Economics should determine politics. For Marxism, Nature of Economic Relations: Conflict, the essence of economic relations is conflict. For Marxism, Nature of the Actors: Economic Classes. For Marxism, Goal of Economic Activity: Maximization of class interests. For Marxism, Relationships between economics and politics: Economics does determine politics. For Mercantilism, Nature of Economic Relations: Conflict, the essence of economic relations is conflict. For Mercantilism, Nature of the Actors: Nation States. For Mercantilism, Goal of Economic Activity: Maximization of National interests. For Mercantilism, Relationships between economics and politics: Politics determine economics.

ON ROBERT GILPIN: "THE NATURE OF POLITICAL ECONOMY" SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now

<https://assignbuster.com/robert-gilpin-the-nature-of-political-economy/>