VI. Agenda

The Presiding Officer asked Gov. Nitze Lomod for the next item in the Order of Business, which was about the House Rules of the League of Governors. The Presiding Officer gave the officers 5 minutes to scan the said House Rules. The officers did what they were told to do. After 5 minutes, the Presiding Officer opened the table for possible amendments yet there were none.

The second item on the agenda was the Intramurals which will be on September 4-7, 2013. The Presiding Officer informed the officers on the tentative activities for the event. She mentioned about Bibo Bates, Hiphop Contest, Dancesport, Acoustic Session and The Amazing Race. Gov. Mary Cielo Padillo asked about the amazing race. The Presiding Officer explained that there will be groups from each of the departments. She also said that the number of participants is still to be planned.

The third item on the agenda was the Mini Bar Reports. Gov. Mary Cielo Padillo, who was in charge of the money, reported that they lack manpower, it didn't went well and it somehow became too confusing. The Presiding officer then suggested about a division of work. Since there were still foods and drinks not sold during the Acquaintance Party, the officers decided that it shall be used for the CAS Sportsfest this coming August 3, 2013. The College of Engineering and Education were assigned for the drinks while the College of Computer Studies were assigned for the foods. Committees shall also be formed. Gov. Nitze Lomod suggested about the idea of a " barkada treat". It is more convenient and there's an assurance that foods and drinks shall be sold efficiently. This was then agreed by the Presiding Officer and governors.

VII. Other Matters

Gov. Nitze Lomod asked something about the irresponsibility of a co-officer and what shall be done for such. The Presiding Officer responded about this and said that there will be a first warning. Once repeatedly done and ignored, replacement of the said officer shall take after. Gov. Melissa Acera also asked about certain elected officers who were not able to attend the inauguration. The Presiding Officer then explained that the concerned elected officer shall report to an oath taking given that only appointed officers are required to attend the activity. Gov. Mary Cielo Padillo also requested for an office. The Presiding Officer said that she will still pass a letter to the administration regarding the said request. Gov. Nitze Lomod asked about an officer's involvement of part-time jobs, if this shall affect her responsibilities as an officer. The Presiding Officer said that she may file a leave of absence. Landyards for every department were also suggested.
