

Cfa learning outcome statements

analyze to examine in detail calculate to find (the value of something) by using mathematics

ONCFA LEARNING OUTCOME STATEMENTS SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU

FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now classify to assign to categories or groups compare to note the similarities and differences of two or more things construct to build by putting together constituent parts contrast to state the differences between convert to change from one form or purpose to another critique to evaluate in a detailed and critical way define to state exactly the meaning of demonstrate to show competence in; to give examples of; to provide evidence of describe to portray in words determine to decide; to ascertain discuss to examine critically and in detail distinguish point out differences between estimate to determine an approximate value for; to reach an informed but possibly imprecise evaluation of evaluate to reach a conclusion or make a judgement about something through careful study explain to make clear the meaning of forecast to estimate the future value of something formulate to state in clear or definite form; to devise identify to recognize and correctly name interpret to give the meaning of judge to form an opinion about through careful weighing of evidence justify to show to be valid or appropriate in a particular context prepare to put into written form recommend to offer as being appropriate or good select to choose as being the best or most suitable show to communicate in writing solve to find a solution for state to express in words support to provide corroboration for