Add school counselor to the list of people you can turn to when you need help. They know how to listen and can help kids with life challenges.

Counselors have special training in how to help kids solve problems, make decisions, and stand up for themselves. You feel like you need to talk to someone about everything that's going on. A great person to share your thoughts and feelings with is your school counselor.

In addition to help kids with problems guidance counselors help kids learn about duty skills, the dangers of substance abuse, careers, diversity and respect for other. Mr. Airways is the school counselor. He is not only a counselor but he is more like a friend. He gives you all sorts of tips and support on solving problems and making good decisions. Chances are that whatever problem I have, my counselor has seen it before and has lots of good advice on how to help me work through it. Mr..

Airways is informative because when there is an open house for a high school he tells us exactly what place it is and the time. Also, he gives us advice on what questions they might ask us when we have our interview. As a student that I am, I have a lot of dreams that I want to accomplish. One of my dreams that I want to accomplish is to become a doctor. Having Mr. Airways as the guided counselor, can help me on accomplishing my goals. He can give me advice and tips on what to do. If Mr. Airways helps me, I think that he may help me accomplish my goals.
